This compilation is not the result of my "Labor of Love" alone, but represents the cooperation of many individuals, some helped a lot, a great many did their part. I hope each of you are pleased with this compilation. We wish all of the family records could have been complete. Much more could have been done, however I feel that we have given you a family history as complete and as accurate as we could secure it at this time.

How to secure the most use of this volume in tracing your Direct line ancestors.

- (1) Consult the index for your name, it will refer you to the page where your record may be found. If your name does not appear look for the name of your parents or grandparents.
- (2) Using the number preceding any given name beginning H _____ turn back to the number H _____ dropping off the last number each time until you have reached H alone.

Example: H1497 represents an individual who was the 7th child of H149. H149 was the ninth child of H14, and H14 was the 4th child of H1 who was the first child of the original ancestor.

- (3) Following the name of an individual whose line is traced, in brackets, is the given name of this person's direct line from the original ancestor down to his parents christian name.

Example: (George-George-William-John)

HOBSONS OF ENGLAND AND AMERICA

" There have been Hobsons and Hopsons in England almost forever. Hob and Ob were once diminutives of Robert, and were probably used as regular baptismal names, and the name Hobson was first given to a son of some Hob. In King William the Norman's Domesday Book there are listed Hobbesunes and Obbesunes, the progenitors of today's big family of Hobson in England and America."

" In England the family has for centuries been settled in the shires of Leicester, Lincoln, and Darby, and has spread pretty well over the whole island."

The Current-Hobson genealogy states that the Hobson family, from which we descend, had its seat in Tuddington, Middlesex county, England as early as the 13th century.

"Thomas Hopson of Leicester is the first of the name on record in that region, he became a freeman when he was admitted into the Guild Merchant in 1479 or 1480, when John Parsons was mayor. In the time of Henry VIII, the family was at Great Glen, near the city of Leicester. John Hobson died there in 1545, a devote Catholic, and we still have his will. By its terms he left bread to the poor cottagers, and legacies to the village church of Kilby and the Cathedral church of Lincoln. Some of this family from Great Glen have come to this country at various times, one of them was Elizabeth, who married Thomas Camble..."

"We do not know, however, just what relation the first settlers of the name in this country bore to this branch of the family in England."

"... John Hobson or Hopson settled at Guilford, Connecticut, and William Hobson settled at Rowley, Mass. They were both from England and were probably related to each other. It is said that William was a son of Henry of Usflete, Yorkshire. He landed in Massachusetts in 1652, and his three sons Humphrey, John and William... founded a substantial branch of this family."

"John Hobson or Hopson, of Guilford may have come first to Massachusetts...he reached Connecticut in 1660...he died in 1701. He had married three times, and he left two sons. John and Samuel. His great-grandson John, the fourth in a direct line of his name, was a Captain in the Revolutionary War."

"Two other Hobsons were officers of the Revolution, Joseph, a Lieutenant, and Nicholas, a Captain, both of Virginia. They were worthy representatives of that section of the family in the south, from which Richmond Pearson Hobson comes. It is said the motto of this branch of the family has for years and years been "Death Before Dishonor".

Coats of Arms.

" There are a good many coats of arms borne by the different branches of the family, but most of them bear a good deal of resemblance to each other. One of them is blazoned; Argent, a chevron engrailed Azure between four lozenges gules, each charged with a cross, or, another is: Argent, a chevron Azure between three hurts, a chief to the second. The crest is a griffin's head couped, argent between two wings elevated azure, and the motto is "Fortitudine."

"The Hobson family from Lincolnshire, England, bear arms emblazoned, Sable, a cinquefoil ermine, a chief chequy on an azure. Crest: A panther head erased and guard proper issuing from the mouth and ears, gorged with a collar, chequy or and azure." (From, A corner in ancestors fortitudine Hobson, by Frances Cowles).

"One of the most ancient and frequently used of the Coats of Arms of the Hobsons of England is described in heraldic terms, as Follows: (Burke, General Armory, 1884); "Arms" Argent, on a chevron azure between three Torteaux as many cinquefoils of the first, a chief chequy or and azure." Crest: "A griffin passant per pale ermine and or, beaked, membered, and holding in the beak a key gold." Media Research Bureau. Hobson.

Our branch of the Hobson family is claimed to be of English and Irish stock. George Hobson who married Elizabeth is our first known American ancestor, whether there were other Hobson's related to George Hobson who came to America, we do not know. At an early date there were many Hobsons and Hopsons living in Virginia. There were four Hobson branches living in North Carolina during the Revolutionary War period. Our Hobson family may have been related to some of them, but we have not found any records to prove any relationship.

Some of the Hobson family lines in America, which have been identified are: Robert Hobson, Northampton Co. Va., 1647; John Hobson, Lower Norfolk Co. Va., 1648; Thomas Hobson, of Va. 1650; Roger Hobson, of Northumberland Co. Va., 1652; John Hobson, of Va., 1653; Richard Hobson, of Va., 1653; William Hobson, of Rowley, Mass, abt. 1652, sons Humphrey, John, William and others; John Hobson, prob. of Rowley, Mass.; Henry Hobson, of Newport, R.I.; Elizabeth Hobson, of Northampton; Francis Hobson, from Ireland, but believed descendant of Cheshire branch, Newark, N.J., 1712. Quaker, 1716.

GEORGE AND ELIZABETH HOBSON

GEORGE HOBSON (George-George) married Elizabeth. The father and grandfather are both claimed to have been named George. His parents and grandparents lived in England. His grandfather had two cousins, John and Joseph Hobson who moved from England to Ireland.

George Hobson and his wife Elizabeth were born in England. It is claimed that they arrived in Philadelphia in 1707. However they have not been definitely located until about 1732 when they are found in Orange county, Virginia. They are thought to have gone to Virginia from Chester county, Pennsylvania. It is possible that they went into Orange county, Virginia as early as 1726 as he secured land adjoining Morgan ap Morgan and John Mills. Morgan ap Morgan went into this area in 1726 from near Wilmington, Delaware. Patents were issued to their land in 1735. George Hobson was granted patent to 967 acres (Deed Bk.16,p.368), which was located on Middle Creek, three miles east of the present Bunker Hill, W.Va. Simon Moon also owned land on Middle Creek near the Hobson land.

R.E. Griffith, of Winchester, Va., who has made considerable research on early Virginia families, states that it is extremely likely that George and Elizabeth Hobson lived first in Chester Co., Pa., going from there to Orange Co.Va. "It would appear from county records that George Hobson, Sr., with his wife Elizabeth appeared here about 1732. This section was then (from 1734-1743) Orange county, and from my recollection of the Orange county records this George Hobson was one of the first members of the Orange county Court as a justice, Apr.23, 1734."

George Hobson, Sr., died in November 1748. Will dated November 19, 1748; proved December 6, 1748.

Their child:

1. George, b. abt 1716; m. Hannah Kinnison.

Hopewell Friends History, 1734-1834, p.29.

George Hobson, 937 acres on Middle Creek, in what is now Berkeley county, W. Va. On Nov. 2, 1743, George Hobson and Elizabeth, his wife, made a deed of gift to George Hobson Jr. for 600 acres of this land, surveyed the day before by Alexander Ross. It is stated that the tract joined David Logan and John Mills and lay upon the "drains of Middle Creek", and was then in the possession of Thomas Brown. The witnesses to this deed were Alexander Ross, Morgan ap Morgan, and John Littler. On March 5, 1744 George Hobson, Jr. and Hannah, his wife, conveyed to George Hobson, Sr., a certain other part of this patent land, which had been conveyed to them previously.

Copy of a letter received from R.E. Griffith, Winchester, Va., May 2, 1945.... "By way of general explanation will state that a certain Alexander Ross, of East Nottingham, Chester county, Pa. in the year 1730 organized an expedition from his neighborhood which he brought to the Shenandoah Valley to settle 100,000 acres he had obtained from the Governor of Virginia, Sir William Gooch. This party was composed of seventy families, but not all of them were Quakers. I would infer from the records here that the Hobsons were not Quakers as no further mention of them occurs in the Quaker records, excepting their signatures as witnesses to neighborhood marriages.

It would appear from county records that George Hobson, Sr. with his wife Elizabeth (maiden name unknown) appeared here about the year 1732. This section was then (from 1734 to 1743) Orange county, and from my recollection of the Orange records this George Hobson was one of the first members of the Orange County Court as a Justice. This man died in 1748 and his will was recorded in Frederick County (formed from Orange in 1743). This will pretty well sets up his children and grandchildren.

I find no further transactions in the records until 1761 when George Hobson Jr. and Rebekah his wife, who are described as being at that time, residents of Orange County, North Carolina, sell their part of their father's land to one Morris Rees. This deed is recorded in Deed Book No. 6, page 442. In 1767 William Hobson, also of Orange Co., N.C. sells his part to John Rees (Deed Book No. 11, page 286.).

Rebekah Hobson must have been a second wife of George Hobson, Jr., as in the transactions between George Hobson Senior and Junior in 1743 Hannah Hobson was named as the wife of George Hobson, Jr., and signs the deed with him. Also, you will note that in the Will of George Hobson Sr. written in 1748, that there is a grand daughter Hannah.

Unfortunately our marriage records before the year 1782 have been lost or destroyed, and I have no way of finding out who this Rebekah was. Perhaps George Jr. was married in North Carolina and the Orange County records in that state would tell. When William Hobson sold to John Rees no wife joins in the conveyance, so it may be presumed that he either was a single man or widower.

I do not find the name "Kinnison" in the deed or will index of our records. However, Simon Moon also lived on Middle Creek, and was a neighbor to the Hobsons.

I find nothing to indicate from whence the Hobson's came, but think it extremely likely that they came here from Chester C. Pa.

Sincerely yours, R.E. Griffith.

GEORGE AND HANNAH (KINNISON) HOBSON

H1 GEORGE HOBSON (George) son of George and Elizabeth Hobson, born about 1716, probably in Chester Co. Pa.; married August 8, 1732 Hannah Kinnison, born 2, 19, 1718, Chester Co. Pa., dau. of Edward and Mary (Greenaway) Kinnison, who were members of the Goshen Monthly Meeting, Chester Co. Pa. (New Jersey Licenses, N.J. Colonial Records, v. 22, pages 233). "George Hobson, of Burlington county, New Jersey granted marriage license August 8, 1732 to marry Hannah Kinnison. "after their marriage they settled on Mill Creek in Maryland, near the Virginia state line. About 1714

they moved into Frederick Co., Virginia (now West Va.).

The Hopewell Monthly Meeting, Va., mentions George Hobson Sr., and George Hobson Jr., as being members of this meeting, but the records of this meeting, 1735-1759, were destroyed by fire, so no further information is found there concerning them. (Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, v.6, p.359).

About 1756 George and Hannah Hobson moved to Orange co., North Carolina, settling near the Cano Creek Monthly Meeting. Hannah Hobson was received at the Cano Creek M. by certificate from the Goshon MM., Chester Co. Pa., 1757, 2, 5. (Hinshaw's Ency. of Am. Quaker Genealogy, v.1, p.397). She apparently died late in 1760 or early 1761, for on Aug. 2, 1760 she signed a deed with George Jr., and in 1761 George Jr., signs a deed with Rebecca as his wife. If this was the second wife of George Jr. he may have remarried soon after the death of Hannah. No further mention of Rebecca has been found to verify whether George Jr. did marry again. George Jr. was living as late as 1790-97, but the exact date of death is not known. It is claimed that George Hobson Jr. married at the age of 16, had two wives and about twenty children, but the names of only nine are known, and records of the descendants of four of them have been found.

A marker was placed at the Rocky River Cemetery in August 1931 in memory of George and Hannah Hobson, as pioneers of Rocky River, by the Pioneer Alamance Society, of North Carolina.

carpet bag. Chicago at that time was a village with only a few families, it was the military post of Fort Dearborn. Because of the unhealthfulness of Chicago he left there in 1838, going to Jackson county, Mo. He married there on Aug. 10, 1842 Emily Amanda Speinhauer. While there he designed and built the Cherokee Mission on the Kansas border. On Apr. 1, 1847, they with their children and two brothers George and Alfred joined at St. Joseph, Mo., an immigration train of one hundred men, women and children, with the Rev. John McKinney, as Captain, bound for Oregon. In this party also was his brother George Hobson, and his wife Sarah, a sister of Emily A. Hobson. He had two covered wagons drawn by two yoke of oxen each. He also had quite a number of loose stock which he drove and his brother George and Dick Adams, a hired man, drove the teams. When the party arrived at Fort Hall, Hadley Hobson and a number of other families joined a California train arriving at Sacramento, Calif. in Sept. 1847. That winter they lived in the old town of Sonoma. While there he contracted Typhoid fever. His life was saved by the efforts of General Vallejo, who lived near them. They treated him with wild herbs, and the children were cared for at the Vallejo home until his recovery. On Jan. 28, 1848 gold was discovered at Sutters Mill on the American River, he was camped near there at the time. He and his family mined gathering 20 pounds of gold dust, and in Nov. of 1848 he took his family to San Francisco, where they boarded a sailing vessel for Portland, Oregon, a trip lasting thirty days. According to letters written by Hadley Hobson he left California due to the bad social conditions existing at the mines.

They settled ten miles east of Salem, Ore. in a large log house with two other families, by the name of Bridges and Smith. In the summer or fall of 1849 Hadley Hobson along with several other men went by horseback to the California gold mines. In the fall of 1850 they returned to Oregon having had a successful mining venture. Hadley Hobson then settled on a donation land claim, near Sublimity, Ore., where he remained the most of his life. He accumulated a considerable amount of land and for many years owned a general merchandise store at Sublimity, Ore. He was seriously injured in 1873 by a run away team and never fully recovered from the injury.

Stephen Hobson inherited the Stephen and Rachel (Vestal) Hobson estate, comprising over 8000 acres in Surry Co. N.C. It contained iron mines, lumber mill and forges, as well as orchards, and good farm land. During the Civil War he made iron, and at the end of the war was paid in worthless Southern script. From 1820-1870 he operated a lumber mill. He also owned a saw mill and several foundaries, particularly during the Civil War. The ruined boiler which furnished power for the saw mill still lies in a field, a short distance from the old home, which is still standing. He sold part of the land at various times, and in 1872, sold the remaining home place, and went to California, to join his sons there. He settled near San Jose, California. He is buried in the Oak Hill Cemetery at San Jose. His grave is marked by a millstone from the old home place in North Carolina, by his son Iven B. Hobson.

H12171 WILLIAM HOBSON (Stephen-Stephen-Stephen-George-George-George) son of Stephen and Mary (Bond) Hobson, born Febr. 4, 1820, near Republic, Surry Co. N.C.; died June 25, 1891, at Newberg, Ore.; married Aug. 7, 1844 (Deep Creek MM.) Sarah Tolbert (or Tulbert), born June 6, 1818, in Guilford Co., N.C., daughter of William and Mary Tolbert, of Iredell Co., N.C.; died Nov. 1, 1890.

William Hobson as a young man became a miller by trade. In 1847 William and Sarah with her sister and two small children crossed the Blue Ridge Mountains, for Hambelton Co. Ind. (Deep Creek MM. 1848, 3, 4 get Westfield MM. Hamilton Co. Ind.). Where he spent one year teaching school, and then went to Lee Co., Iowa. Three years later they moved to Honey Creek, Hardin Co. Ia., near New Providence, and were members of the Honey Creek Monthly Meeting. While living in this vicinity he was instrumental in building up a large Friends church there. In 1871 he made his first trip to Oregon preaching and giving out literature. He had felt the "Call" of "concern" to visit the Pacific Coast to try to establish meetings in Oregon or Washington. William Hobson is generally recognized as the founder of Friends work in Oregon. "The first Friends public preaching service in Oregon on record was held by William Hobson in the Salem Court House, Sunday afternoon May 28, 1871". While in Oregon on this trip he made a careful inspection of the different places he visited with regard to soil, crops raised, religious conditions and other factors that would help in building up a community of Friends. In 1875 he returned to Oregon with John Bond, a minister from Iowa, Perry Hadley, and David J. Wood. William Hobson was a forceful speaker and soon became the leader of the group. He spent much time inspecting the country near Bayton. He traveled over much of the Willamette Valley and in eastern Washington looking for a suitable location. In November 1875 he bought 320 acres near West Chahalem, from a Woman who was a relative. This was the beginning of the permanent settlement of Friends in the vicinity of Newberg. Four of his children moved and settled near him.

This account of William Hobson was compiled from the following sources. Oregon Historical Quarterly, Sept. 1944, p. 195-217; Cemetery records at Newberg, Oregon, and from an unpublished paper written by Mrs. Mercedes J. Paul, as related by Mrs. Anna H. This trip was made in a covered wagon drawn by oxen, and it took six weeks to make the trip from Henry Co.Ia. They settled on the banks of Cow Creek in Crawford county. He was postmaster in the first post-office there which he named Iowa City. Later two miles north of this place a little village started which became Pittsburgh,Kans.

All of their children were born on this farm, and it was later divided among them. George Hobson was still living, 1936, on part of this land which adjoins the city limits of Pittsburgh. The first cemetery there was Hobson cemetery, and was so called until about 15 years ago. John Hobson the father of George was the first person to be buried there. GEORGE HOBSON

HL4 GEORGE HOBSON, son of George and Hannah (Kinnison) Hobson, and grandson of George and Elizabeth Hobson. Very few records have been found of this George Hobson, apparently he is the George Hobson Jr., mentioned in the Will of George Hobson I, as a grandson and most likely the son of George and Hannah(Kinnison) Hobson. He is not recorded in the minutes of The Friends society, so no records have been located from that source, except that he is listed as a witness at the marriage of his brother William Hobson who married Sarah Williams at Rocky River MM.N.C. on May 19,1762.

It is felt most likely that this George Hobson went from

Virginia to North Carolina with the rest of the family.

There is some feeling that George Hobson was listed in the Cane Creek records as George Hodson. A George Hodson Jr., was received at Cane Creek M., by request 1754, 1, 5., but further records on the Hodson family do not add any proof for this feeling.

I believe that this George Hobson lived in Chatham Co. N.C. probably near his Brothers Families, but that he did not belong to The Friends Society. He married Elizabeth, and they had a son Joseph who later became a member of the Friends Society. At the Salem M., Iowa., p. 38 of their records the following appears. "Joseph Hobson, s George & Elizabeth, born 12, 29, 1785, Chatham Co., N.C. Mary Hobson, dt Peter & Elizabeth Gibbs, born 10, 19, 1793, Chesterfield Co., Va." This Joseph Hobson lived in Chatham Co. N.C. from the time of his birth in 1785 to 1821-23 when they appear in Washington Co., Ind. With the confident feeling that the descend- of Joseph Hobson belong to our family line they are included here.

H141 JOSEPH HOBSON, son of George and Elizabeth, born Dec. 29, 1785, Chatham Co., N.C.; married Mary Gibbs, dau. of Peter and Elizabeth Gibbs, born Oct. 19, 1793, Chesterfield Co. Va.

" Joseph and Mary Hobson of Salem M., Iowa, appear to have been received by request at Cane Creek 1813, 8, 7. From the births records of their children you will note that they had been married several years previously. They were given a certificate to Blue River M., Indiana, 1822, 9, 7. From Blue River they removed to White Lick M., thence to Salem. Names of children in the various certificates of removal prove that it was the same Joseph and Mary in each case." Children:
